Carol Woodin, Exhibitions Coordinator for the American Society of Botanical Artists, received a gold medal from the Royal Horticultural Society of England in 1995 for her watercolors of paphiopedilums. In 1998, she received the Annual Award for Excellence in Botanical Art from the American Society of Botanical Artists. Her work has been exhibited recently at the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, D.C., Kew Gardens Gallery in London, and is also included in the Shirley Sherwood Collection.

*"Her intense work on vellum has a glowing translucency.
She is one of the most outstanding of the new wave of American artists"*

—Dr. Shirley Sherwood
